EVALUATE YOUR READING LIST

Does your reading list feature a diverse range of authors including those from different ethnicities, from outside the UK and from non-academic sources?

- What are the dominant voices, narratives and perspectives in your reading list?
- What voices, narratives and perspectives are excluded from your reading list?
- Are the texts on your reading list Eurocentric or Western-centric?
- Is the authors identity or background relevant in the context of the subject?
- Are the authors on your reading list male and white?
- Who is talking about whose culture or experience?
- What is the place of publication?
- What is the language of the text? Is it a translation or in its original language?
